

Scales learned on scaled input images divided by scales learned for original input images.

