

Scales associated with their respective kernel in the first pooling layer for different image scales.

